

1. The Department of Natural Resources created a rule that makes privately-owned hunting operations inside fenced areas illegal in Indiana. Do you agree with that decision?

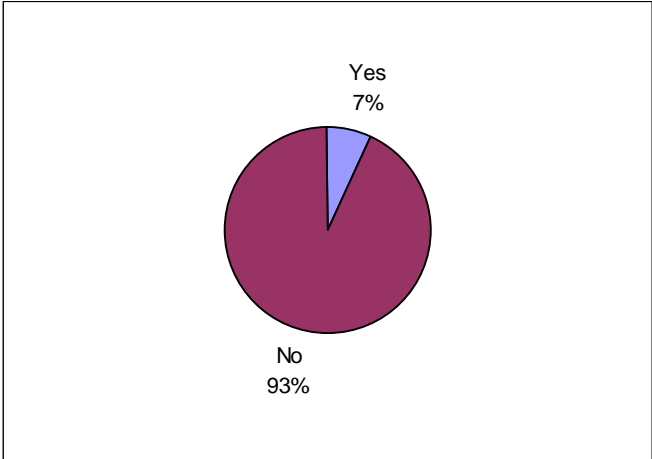

2. Do you favor efforts to curb prison overcrowding and avoid funding increases by giving trial court judges more flexibility and options in sentencing a convicted offender, rather than a mandatory sentence?

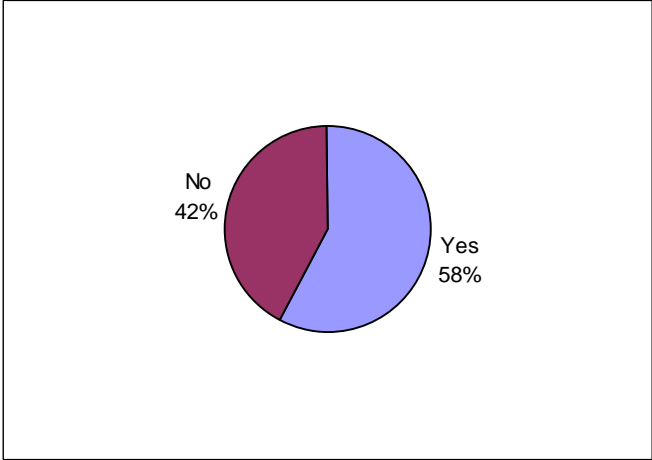

3. By statute, each county is responsible for funding juveniles from their county when sent to a state correctional facility. Who should be responsible for funding juvenile corrections?
A. Taxpayers in each county should continue to pay for their juvenile costs.
B. Taxpayers across the state should begin paying for all juvenile corrections, since the state runs the system now

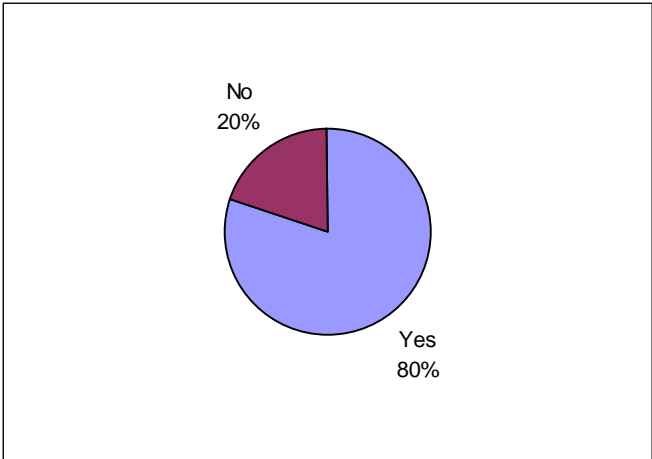

4. Should local governments be able to use eminent domain (the forced selling of private property) when the purpose of acquiring the property is for economic development?

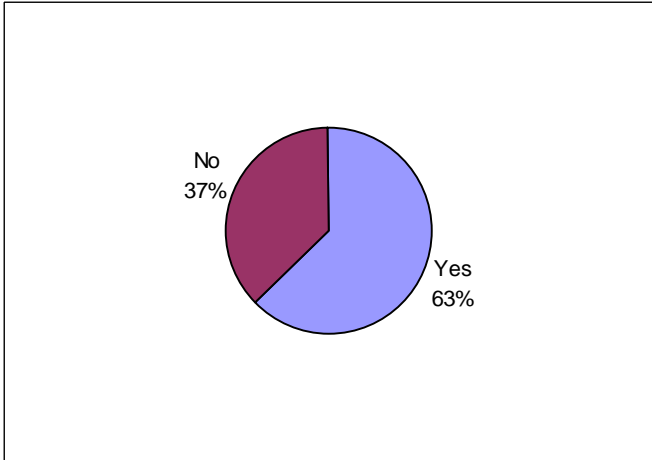

5. Should eminent domain rules concerning the forced sale of private property to the government make it harder to force the sale of someone's home than to force the sale of other property (e.g. businesses or farms)?

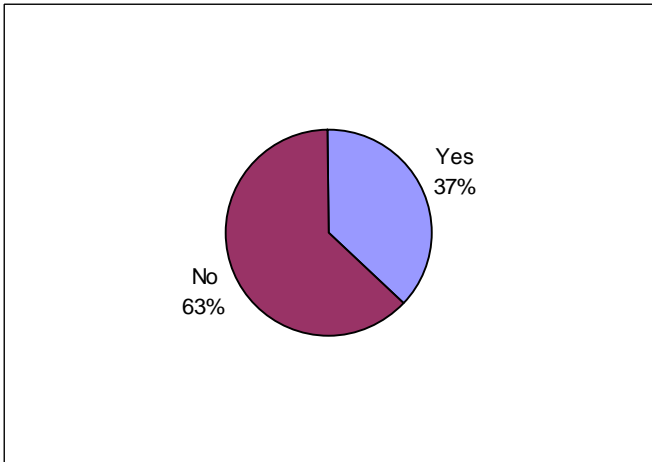

6. Currently, Indiana offers tax incentives to companies who generate power using a certain type of clean-coal technology. Should the state extend this existing tax credit to companies that are proposing to use even more effective clean-coal technology?

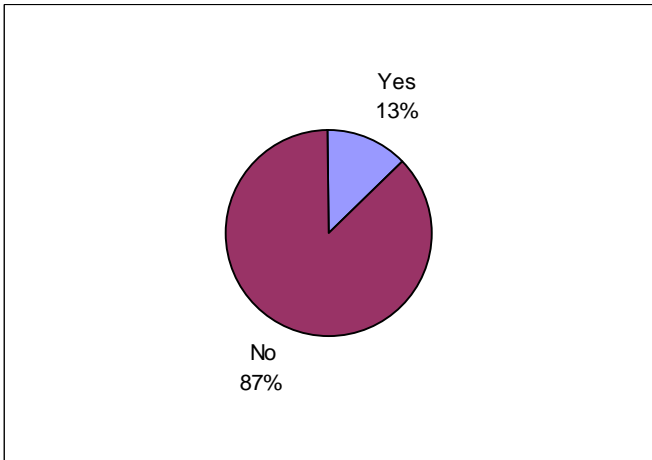

7. Should telephone service be deregulated in Indiana, allowing large companies to compete with small companies, as well as allowing citizens to choose their service provider?

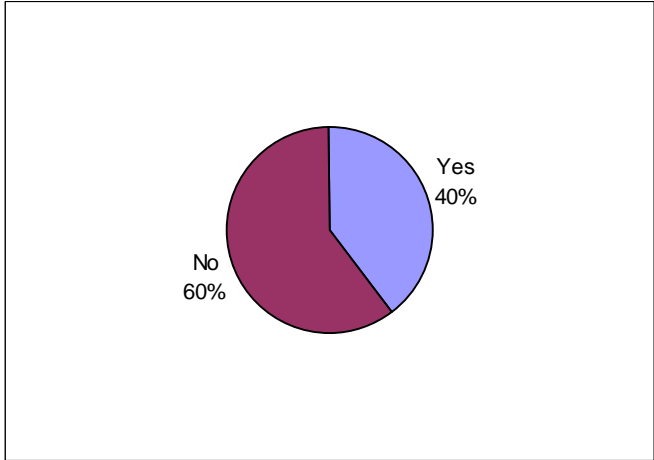

9. Should Indiana approve the use of pull-tabs (slot machine-like gambling machines) to increase purse amounts, therefore ensuring the preservation of Indiana's horse industry and creating more revenue for the state?

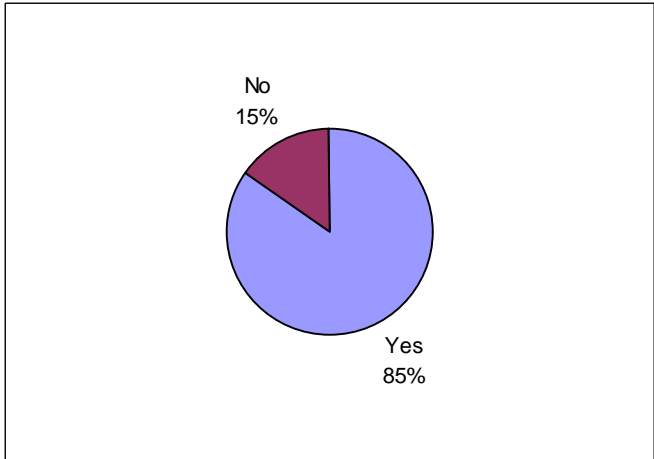

11. Should the state enact a special tax on items purchased at fast food restaurants?

8. Legislation has been authored in the past that would legalize electronic gambling devices (i.e. cherry masters or video poker) but would strictly limit their use to users 21 years of age or older, and require that these devices be placed only in establishments that have obtained a liquor license, like taverns or fraternal organizations. Would you favor legalizing these electronic gambling devices?

10. Do you support a state constitutional amendment defining marriage as the union of one man and one woman?

12. Should the state require public assistance recipients to submit to drug tests?
